The Mission

The Cranford High School Buzz Off strives to spread awareness and support for the fight against cancer in a simple, but meaningful way. Despite the existence of various forms of cancer, a common characteristic among patients is losing hair. Therefore, the Cranford High School Buzz Off is asking participants to honor and support those fighting against cancer by shaving their heads. Teacher participants will either shave their heads or receive a pie to the face when certain donations levels are achieved. Through this event, money will be raised and donated to Relay For Life. Donations from students and staff will be collected during school hours. For those who wish to donate from outside the high school, an “In Memoriam…” donation opportunity is available. To commemorate these donations, a ribbon with the person’s name will be hung near the donations meter. The overall goal of the event is to raise $1000, if not more, in donations.

What YOU Can Do

Every penny counts. In the fight against cancer, every donation is just as important as the next. No matter the size, your donation will help in some way, and a donation of any size will be gladly accepted. With each donation, Cranford High School will get closer to its goal of raising $1,000. The more money raised, the more awareness will be spread, and the more that can be done to help the cause. For all “In Memoriam…” donations, all checks must be written out to Cranford High School. Sadly, it has evolved to the point where almost everybody knows someone who has been affected by cancer. So let’s continue to help fight the good fight and eventually bring an end to this devastating disease.

“I keep dreaming of a future, a future with a long and healthy life, not lived in the shadow of cancer but in the light.”
- Patrick Swayze
